Featured Presenters

Sandy Markwood, MA, is a CEO of the National Association of Area Agencies on Aging (n4a); an organization which represents the nation's 655 Area Agencies on Aging and serves as the voice in Washington for the 240+ Title IV Native American aging programs. Markwood has worked over 20 years providing policy and programmatic support to counties and cities across the United States. Markwood will be our General Session Speaker. Her presentation will include State and Washington Policy Updates.

LeAnn Thieman, a renowned motivational speaker, will be a featured speaker. Sharing her life-changing lessons learned from a Vietnam Orphan Airlift operation in 1975 and 35 years as a nurse, with a belief that we all have individual "war zones," Thieman inspires audiences to balance their lives, live their priorities and make a difference in the world. She is the author of many Chicken Soup books, including Chicken Soup for the Caregiver's Soul.

Mitchell Tolle is a Kentucky artist of national acclaim as well as a skillful public speaker whose presentations evoke inspiration as he shares childhood stories that have directed his career and artistic paths. His presentation, "Touching the Clay," is the closing session for the conference.
